

Employment of EU and non-EU citizens

Our two-day programme will help you get to understand the legal changes that have been brought into force in 2011 as the result of the new amendment to the „Act on Foreigners Stay” and its impact on your everyday practice.

Who should attend?

The aim of this course is to acquaint HR employees with this issue. The programme is highly practical and the participants will be able to deal with all standard situations that could arise while employing a foreign national.

Course programme

DAY 1 – Employment and residency permits for EU citizens

- Overview of the fundamental regulations and rules of law related to this issue
- Registration of EU citizens at the labour office
- Legalisation of an EU citizen and his/her family members’ residence – registration vs. residency permit
- Introduction to EU social and health insurance coordination
- Social security and health insurance principles in case of employees from non-EU countries

Employment of foreigners from labour law point of view

- Governing law in employment relationships
- Agency employment and assignment
- Free movement of services
- Working conditions of foreign employees in the Czech Republic

DAY 2 – Employment, visa and residency permits for citizens of third-world countries

- Overview of the fundamental regulations and rules of law related to this issue
- Processing a work permit for citizens of third-world countries seconded to the Czech Republic or employed by a Czech company
- Exemptions from the obligation to obtain a work permit
- Legalisation of residence of a citizen of third-world countries and his/her family – visa types, conditions for granting a visa, application differences, practical experience
- Extension of visa and residency permits
- Green and blue cards
- Schengen rules and their impact on employment of third-country nationals
- Communication with authorities involved in the immigration process, their role and competences

Who will teach you?

Experts from the Global Visa Solutions department all of whom have extensive experience in personal taxes and immigration

Course details

Date: 15 – 16 April 2013

Time: 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Venue: PwC premises, Náměstí Svobody 20, Brno

If you are only interested in one part of the programme, it is possible to attend on the day that is relevant for you. All participants will obtain a certificate confirming their attendance at this practical course.

Questions

For more information and to register to attend, please fill in the registration form at www.pwc.cz/academy, or write an e-mail to the.academy@cz.pwc.com. Should you have any questions, please contact Martina Kopsová, +420 251 151 816.

The price of this two-day programme is CZK 12 900,- + VAT*

*The cost of attending for only one day is CZK 6 450.

Earn your CPD points with us!

For each day of the programme, you are eligible to get 8 CPD points (in total 16 CPD points for both days) towards your Continuous Professional Development (CPD) route.

© 2013 PricewaterhouseCoopers Česká republika, s.r.o. All rights reserved. In this document, "PwC" refers to PricewaterhouseCoopers Česká republika, s.r.o., which is a member firm of PricewaterhouseCoopers International Limited, each member firm of which is a separate legal entity.

www.pwc.cz/academy