April 2013!

The Academy offers you a unique experience in the field of project management. Our course provides you with fundamental techniques, processes and concepts to successfully manage projects.

What's in it for me and my business?

You will decrease stress in relation to keeping a project together and increase the probability of finishing the project on time, on budget and to specification.

You will be able to:

- Forecast and plan project tasks at the necessary level of detail
- Understand project stakeholders and how to manage them
- Find out how to report on or monitor project progress
- Mitigate risks related to project execution
- Manage the project in order to deliver the expected business benefits
- Increase the performance of the project team

Who should attend this course?

Individuals who need to strengthen their project management skill sets, those who are new to project management, or project managers seeking to refresh their fundamental project management knowledge, skills and current tools.

The Academy

“Everest for me, and I believe for the world, is the physical and symbolic manifestation of overcoming odds to achieve a dream.”

Tom Whittaker (1948, England)
